

Love All Sorts of People

Acts 10:34, 35

In one way or an - oth - er, each per - son that I see Is diff - 'rent in their own way, not ev - 'ry - one's like me. They come in diff - 'rent col - ors, and some can't run or walk. Some speak an - oth - er lang - uage or use their hands to talk. But when I give a greet - ing, I start to see how it can be. I see them smile; we both feel hap - py, 'cause they're a lot like me. Je - ho - vah loves all sorts of peo - ple; he's al - ways good to you and me. Let's be like him and wel - come oth - ers to join Je - ho - vah's fam - i - ly.
